Project Planning

Class Einstein

Week 1

- To understand the water cycle.
- To be able to track rain fall.
- To know about different weather conditions and the involvement of water.

Week 2

- To know about Sir David Attenborough's work.
- To be able to identify life under the sea.
- To understand the importance of sea life.

Week 3/4

- To be able to recognise man-made and natural water features.
- To understand the history of the canal.
- To know about water transport.

Week 3/4

- To understand water based habitats.
- To know about amphibians.
- To be able to identify features of a river.

Week 5

- To know about Roman baths and their history.
- To be able to explore the history of spas.
- To understand how water developed medicine knowledge.

Week 6

- To understand the significance of water pollution.
- To be able to identify effects of climate change.
- To know about recycling.