

Christmas Performance

Thank you to all those who performed and supported this year's Christmas Performance of The Nutcracker. What a success! It is always so lovely hearing your glowing comments afterwards. We are very proud of all of our John Hellins pupils.

Clubs

There are no clubs running next week children will need to be collected at 3.15pm please.

Celebration Assembly. These children shared their fantastic work in celebration assembly this week.

Lunchtime Team Vacancies

Are you looking to return to work or take on a part time role for a few hours a week? Are you interested in joining our fun, nurturing and flexible lunchtime team? If so, please get in touch with Jodie Matthews or Judy Cox to find out more about our current lunchtime vacancies. No specific experience is required - we are just looking for the right people with the right personal skills to join our team. Hours of work will be 11.45am - 1.15pm Monday through to Friday.

Happy Christmas

We would like to wish all our pupils and families a very Happy Christmas. This is the final newsletter of 2019. We hope you have a wonderful break over the Christmas period, see you on 6th January.

Friends of John Hellins Christmas Raffle

Children are asked to donate to a class hamper and then raffle tickets go on sale and the raffle is drawn before Christmas.

For this year's Christmas Hamper Raffle, each class has been assigned their own colour. The colours are:

Franklin – Red
Newton – Purple
Edison – Green
Einstein – Blue
Curie – Silver / White
Hodgkin - Orange
Anning – Gold

We would be very grateful if children could bring into their class a luxury food/drink/gift item in the appropriate colour.

Raffle tickets will go on sale soon until 16th December in time for the draw on the 18th December.

Christmas Tree Festival

John Hellins children have decorated a tree again this year as part of the Christmas Tree Festival in St Nicholas Church. Please feel free to take a look when you are passing.

Mrs Akrill

For a few weeks after Christmas Mrs Akrill will be based in class. All wellbeing support during these few weeks will be managed by Mrs Matthews. Please email, ring or pop in to see Mrs Matthews where previously you would have contacted Mrs Akrill.
