

Project Planning –Extreme Environments

W/C 04.01.23

Geography - to understand the relationship between geographical location and environment.
Art - to understand how light sources create shadow.

W/C 09.01.23

Science – to know the characteristics of living things.
Geography - to make comparisons between two extreme environments in Europe.
Art – to research artists who use shadows to create art.

W/C 16.01.23

Science – to know how living things can be grouped in different ways.
Geography – to understand the cause of extreme environments.
Art – to experiment with shadows to create art.

W/C 23.01.23

Science – to understand the impact of changes in environments on living things.
Geography - to research an extreme environment.
Art - to create shadow using drawing techniques.

W/C 30.01.23

Science – to research adaptations of different species to their environments.
Art – to experiment with shadows to create art.
Geography- to research an extreme environment.

W/C 06.02.23

Science – to know how living things can be grouped in different ways.
Geography – to understand the cause of extreme environments.
Art – to create a final piece of art using shadow.

