

Project Planning –

Hodgkin Spring 2

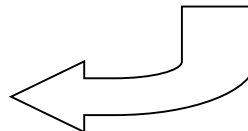

W/C 20.02.23

Sci – To understand what forces are
Computing – To know how technology is used to aid design
Geography – To know about the English Counties
Geography – To know what different types of settlement are

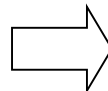

W/C 27.02.23

Sci – To understand what non-contact forces are
Computing – To know how technology is used to aid design
Geography – To know about the English Counties
Geography – To know what different types of land use are

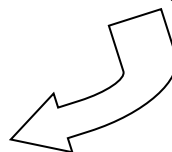

W/C 06.03.23

Sci – To understand what contact forces are
Art – To understand how different patterns attract different people
Geography – To know about UK Trade links
Geography – To be able to compare parts of the UK and USA
RE – To understand what the 8 paths of Buddhism are and who Siddhartha was

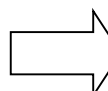

W/C 13.03.23

Sci – To understand what contact forces are
History – To understand the term substantive concepts and what they are
Geography – To be able to compare parts of the UK and USA
Geography – To understand how natural resources like water, minerals, food and energy are distributed globally

W/C 20.03.23

Sci – To be able to explore, discuss and record the forces that are acting on us
Sci – To understand the forces of magnetism
Geography – To be able to compare parts of the UK and USA
Art – To be able to improve mastery of art techniques

W/C 27.03.23

Trip to Space Centre

Sci – To understand what impact gears and levers have on forces, allowing a smaller force to be used
Geography – To be able to identify the main features of the planet
Art – To be able to improve mastery of art techniques