

Geography Down in the Jungle...

- The seven continents of the world are: Africa, Antarctica, Asia, Australasia, Europe, North America and South America.
- The five oceans of the world are: Arctic Ocean, Atlantic Ocean, Indian Ocean, Pacific Ocean, and Indian Ocean.
- The Equator is an imaginary line that goes around the middle of the Earth.
- Countries close to Equator are hotter compared to those further away. Countries and continents close to the North and South Pole are cold.
- An atlas is a book of maps.
- The Water Cycle describes the movement of water on Earth.
- The basic processes of the water cycle are evaporation, condensation and precipitation.

History

- David Attenborough is an English broadcaster and naturalist and he is 97 years of age.
- He presents shows on climate and the natural world.
- When he was young, he collected fossils and rocks.
- He was knighted in the year 1985.

Science

- Daisies and dandelions are common wild plants that are not not planted by people.
- Roses and sunflowers are common garden plants and are planted by people.
- Oak and beech are types of deciduous trees and they lose their leaves.
- Pine and holly are types of deciduous trees and they do not lose their leaves.
- The basic structure of a flowering plant includes: roots, leaves, stem, bud and flower.
- Seasons occur because of the Earth's tilted position and sunrays are more direct to the equator.

Art

- Pattern can be created using line, shape and curves.
- Pattern can be repeated to create a specific design.
- Modern art is any art form including: painting, sculpture, and photography
- Pop art is art created with bright colours and technology based on recent and current trends.
- Jackson Pollock flicked and dripped art onto canvas on the floor. He used different colours depending on his mood.

Design and Technology

- Food comes from an animal or a plant.
- Bridges must be strong and stable and aesthetically pleasing.
- Free-standing structures must stand up on their own.
- Eating healthy and consuming a balanced diet is essential for the human body to function correctly.
- Different foods come from different origins from around the world.

Music

- 'Flight of the Bumblebee' is a piece of classical music that is intended to evoke the rapidly changing and chaotic flying of a bumblebee.
- Untuned instruments include: drums, jingles and triangles.

RE

- Muslims believe in the god 'Allah'.
- The following duties Muslim's must fulfil are Prayer, testimony of faith, fasting during Ramadan, charity and pilgrimage to Mecca.

Computing

- Technology must be used respectfully and carefully.
- An algorithm is a list of rules to follow to complete a task or solve a problem.