

Science

- There are many different types of animal including lion, frog, newt, robins, sharks, clownfish and snakes.
- Parts of the human body include, shoulders, elbows, arms, legs, feet, neck and head.
- The five senses are sight (eyes), touch (hands), taste (mouth), hear (ears) and smell (nose).
- Animals can be sorted into different categories - carnivores, herbivores and omnivores.
- Carnivores eat meat, herbivores eat a plant based diet and omnivores eat a meat and plant diet.

Geography

- Materials such as glass, paper, cardboard, plastic and wood can be recycled.
- The UK has four seasons; spring, summer, autumn and winter. During these seasons the weather changes along with the trees and plants as they can look different.
- The weather within the UK often changes, some weather patterns that occur are; sunny intervals, snow, frost, rainy, sunny, windy, warm and cloudy.
- The abbreviation for the United Kingdom is UK.

History

- John Hellins was the founder of our school.
- He was born in Devon, England.
- John Hellins Primary School opened in 1817.
- A timeline shows us when key historical events happened. A timeline is in chronological order.
- The first cars and motorbikes were made over 150 years ago.
- The 1969 moon landing was known as Apollo 11, Neil Armstrong was one of the astronauts.

RE

- Christians celebrate Christmas, Easter and Harvest.
- The Hindu god is Brahman and the Holy book for Hindu's is The Veda.
- Hindu's special place of worship is the Mandir.
- Many Hindu people have a shrine in their homes.
- Lakshmi is an important story to Hindu's as it highlights good fortune and success.
- Hindu's celebrate a festival called Diwali - the festival of light. Hindu's use Diya Lamps which are lit to help Lakshmi to find her way into peoples homes.

Art

- Colour is an element of art. The three primary colours are red, yellow and blue. Secondary colours are purple, green and orange
- Self portraits are when you do a drawing of yourself.
- There are different tones of colour, which can be made by adding a small amount of black or white paint. White paint lightens a colour whereas black paint makes the colour darker. However only a little bit of black is needed.
- Using a variety of pencils when creating art can give different effects.

Music

- Songs and chants often have rhyming words.
- Our voice can be used to express how we are feeling through singing loudly or quietly. It can also be high or low in pitch. You can change the pace of your voice when singing a song by singing quicker or slower.
- When you know a song word for word you know it off by heart.

DT

- Structures and models are designed before they are built, this is so that the builders know what to build and how to build it.
- Architects design buildings. They help to make sure that the building is safe for people to use.
- Different materials work best for different structures.
- A healthy diet is when we eat a variety of different foods such as fruit, vegetables, carbohydrates and fats.
- When making a healthy soup it is important to have the correct ingredients and the right equipment.

Computing

- A code is a set of instructions that are given in order to complete a task.
- Debugging is an important part of developing programs, as it allows for any errors to be found and changed in order for the program to run smoothly. Stopping and checking for bugs regularly allows for the program to run more smoothly.
- Technology should be used safely and if I am unsure on something then I must tell an adult straight away.

We Are Family Learning Review

Newton Class

