

Franklin Class

Learning Review

Geography

- Penguins, whales and seals live in Antarctica
- Polar bear, Arctic fox, Arctic hare, snowy owl, moose and caribou live in The Arctic
- Antarctica has 2 seasons; summer and winter
- We care for the environment by looking after animals, putting rubbish in bins and recycling

Computing

- A keyboard and mouse are features of a computer
- Bee-bots are used to give instructions (algorithms)

DT

- Glue and tape fix materials together
- Lego, mobilo and cubes can be fixed together to create 3D structures

Art

- Collage is the process of layering media
- Fine brush paintbrushes are good for adding detail
- rolled paper can be molded to create 3D structures

Animals From Around The World

Music

- A composer writes music
- An orchestra is a groups of musicians who play lots of different instruments
- 'Mars' is written by the composer Gustav Holst

Science

- There are 8 planets in the solar system
- The moon orbits the Earth
- Plants grow from seeds

History

- The past has already happened and the present is happening now
- We know that we all have differences and similarities in our lives - families, experiences, likes and dislikes
- Non-fiction is real, fiction is not real

