EINSTEIN CLASS

STONE AGE

LEARNING REVIEW

ART

- Mixing two primary colours makes a secondary colour.
- Mixing a primary colour with a secondary colour makes a tertiary colour.
- Paintbrushes can make different marks of size and shape, and create different textures.
- Batik is a process used to dye fabrics using wax resistant patterns and paint on fabric or paper.
- Batik is an ancient art form originating in Indonesia.

COMPUTING

- A picture can be taken on an iPad using the camera app.
- Pictures can be edited on the photos app, on an iPad.
- To stay safe online, don't message people you don't know.

SCIENCE

- Types of rocks include Igneous, Sedimentary and Metamorphic.
- Fossils are formed when an animal dies and it is covered with sediment.
- Soil is the uppermost layer of the Earth.
- Humans need nutrition; they get this from the food they eat.
- The skeleton provides support, movement and protection.

HISTORY

- The Ice Age was before the Stone Age. The Bronze Age, Iron Age and Romans were after.
- Artefacts and monuments tell us about prehistoric Britain.
- Mammoths, Cave Lions, Woolly Rhinoceroses, Sabre-Toothed Tigers and Reindeer are examples of Prehistoric Animals.
- Palaeolithic, Mesolithic and Neolithic are the three periods in the Stone Age.
- There are similarities and differences between the three periods in the Stone Age.
- Artefacts from the different periods tell us about how people lived.
- During the Palaeolithic period, Stone Age people were nomadic. During the Mesolithic period, they built structures but left them behind. In the Neolithic period, they built settlements and remained there.
- The development of farming reduced the need for people to be hunter-gathers.
- People in the Bronze Age were more settled than people in the Stone Age.

RE

- We can all belong to something for example; a religion, a football club or a class.
- A Baptism is a ceremony where a person is offically welcomed to their Christian journey.
- A Muslim child is welcomed into Islam by reciting a speech into their ear, choosing a good name and performing Tahneek.
- Hindus welcome their children with a variety of different ceremonies to bless their child with health, prosperity and wisdom.
- A Bar/Bat Mitzvah is a ceremony where a Jewish child moves to adulthood and increases their responsbilities to observe Jewish rules.
- We can show someone they are special by celebrating their differences.
- Christians believe Jesus is the Son of God.
- Christains believe Jesus teaches them how to live a good life for example by 'Loving thy neighbour'

DT , COOKING AND NUTRITION

- Seeds are sown, fertilised and are then harvested for food.
- Stew is prepared by washing, peeling and chopping vegetables. They are then cooked in a broth.
- A balanced diet is supported by following the Eatwell plate.
- Designs should meet a design criteria which should be appropriate for use and the consumer.
- Brick and wood are materials that can be used to create a structure.

MUSIC

- Prehistoric instruments were made from bones.
- To perform with confidence, you must practice beforehand.